Please disregard the notice in last week's NOW about changes to parking around the Church. The matter is still being considered as to what option will suit the Church best. Parishioners can be assured that the needs of all of those who regularly help in the running of the Church, as well as those with special parking requirements will be looked after. The current practice of parking around the back and sides of the Church, when on Church business and displaying a Parish Parking Permit, will continue for the foreseeable future.
